Important Announcement

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER ASSOCIATION makes an announcement of more than ordinary interest. By special arrangements with the publishers of that greatest of all reference works—the Encyclopaedia Britannica—we are able to place that king of books within easy reach of every Republic reader. For more than one hundred years the Encyclopaedia Britannica has occupied the foremost rank as a self-educator and work of reference, through its various revisions and additions during that interval. The crowning success now comes in the edition we offer, which is the large type, wide margin,

New 20th Century Edition
 —which is even more extensive and therefore more desirable than the latest costly Edinburgh edition, and we are able to supply Republic readers for a short time at

Much Less Than Half the Cost.

That some sort of an Encyclopaedia is a necessity all must acknowledge. That the great Britannica is the very best none will deny. It is an Encyclopaedia in which each principal subject is treated by an acknowledged authority upon that subject. No other Encyclopaedia has given Ten Thousand Dollars for a Single Article, nor Six Hundred Dollars a Page for written matter. The fact that $3,000,000 were expended in its preparation, requiring the labor of 2,000 of the world's greatest scholars—tells the story of its exalted superiority.

SAYS HE DID NOT SET A BEAR TRAP.

Mrs. Seton-Thompson Resents the Arrest of Her Author-Artist Husband.

New York, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Ernest Seton-Thompson doesn't believe that her husband ever set a trap for a bear.

"Envy explains my husband's arrest in Colorado," said Mrs. Seton-Thompson yesterday. "Envy of his guide, Goff, for Goff was the guide of Roosevelt, the President, and is in history now."

"The other would be Goff if they could. Wildly human, isn't it? They might have been successful if the person that was with Goff was not Mr. Seton-Thompson.

"Goff is irreproachable, and well able to take care of himself. But what can one do against many who are not afraid to be malicious? The charge of killing deer, implying that Mr. Seton-Thompson was absurd, at sight."

"He does not hunt to kill. He and I are defenders of the game laws and of the forest regulations. We make always a cinder of stone around our campfires. Mr. Seton-Thompson wouldn't even shoot a chipmunk."

"He has never owned or set a bear trap. He had only a camera in his trip with Goff. The dogs that Goff has are trained not to chase deer."

"The charge against him and my husband, who was with him—I might have been there, too, and it was only by an accident that I wasn't—was made by a man named Bush."

"Mr. Seton-Thompson says that Bush wanted to be advertised; but Mr. Seton-Thompson says this because he is charitable and it is a less ugly fault to want to be advertised than to be a fraud. Bush is a game warden. He made his charge of setting a bear trap with venison, entailing the killing of deer. At court he said, 'We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty as charged, and believe the persecution to be malicious.'"

SON TRIES TO KILL ENTIRE FAMILY.

For Hatred of His Father He Put Arsenic in the Coffee Pot.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 19.—Because his father refused to furnish him with spending money, G. Wilson Smoyer of this city poisoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. Smoyer. Both are in a critical condition, and the doctors doubt the recovery of Mrs. Smoyer. The young man, who attempted to kill his parents, is the only child. He is a graduate of both Muhlenberg College and Allentown Business College, and was at one time an inmate of Morristown Insane Asylum, from which institution he was discharged as cured.

Several weeks ago the family discovered that their son had emptied the contents of a two-ounce vial of carbolic acid in the coffee-pot, and that he had done so for the purpose of poisoning his father. He was arrested.

To-day Smoyer took an unusual interest in the preparation of a meal. Mrs. Smoyer kept a close watch on him. In spite of her vigilance, he emptied a large dose of arsenic into the coffee-pot and spat it out. After having seen the results of his deed, Smoyer coolly packed up his clothing and was about to leave for the country when the police arrested him.

Smoyer was a brother-in-law named Peter Krutner, and he agreed to complete the trade for $100 providing that Schwab procure the trade. Schwab's relationship to the Director of Public Works was supposed to be sufficient assurance that the "rookie" would be delivered. Krutner was to receive a position as bridge captain.

Schwab says several of Banko's allegations are not correct. He says he was not bunched in respect to the trade of vehicles and that the rig he secured from Banko was not worth $5. He says the wagon-maker had vanished and cleaned up an old chair which was on his last legs, and had painted it off on him as a good buy. Banko finally agreed to Banko $150 and ordered that the costs be paid by Schwab.

LIKE A "DAVID HARUM" TRADE.

Lawsuit Follows an Exchange of Burgies in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 19.—Some rather strange allegations were made in a case tried before Justice John Brown. The defendant was Aaron Schwab, father-in-law of Director of Public Works, and the plaintiff was Fred Banko, Jr., a wagonmaker.

The trouble arose over a "David Harum" trade of an old survey and an old phaeton. Banko's vehicle was supposed to be the better, and he says he was to receive a bonus of $125. Schwab demurred, and the figure was reduced to $100 under a certain peculiar transaction.

Banko was a brother-in-law named Peter Krutner, and he agreed to complete the trade for $100 providing that Schwab procure the trade. Schwab's relationship to the Director of Public Works was supposed to be sufficient assurance that the "rookie" would be delivered. Krutner was to receive a position as bridge captain.

He says the wagon-maker had vanished and cleaned up an old chair which was on his last legs, and had painted it off on him as a good buy. Banko finally agreed to Banko $150 and ordered that the costs be paid by Schwab.
